

Bobby Enoch

Director of Budget/Real Estate Professional & Investor/Football Coach and Trainer

A native Washingtonian with a lifelong love of sports and community service, Bobby Enoch brings over three decades of leadership and dedication across multiple sectors. A graduate of DeMatha Catholic High School and Virginia State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in accounting, Bobby has built an impressive 32-year career in the federal government, specializing in financial management and budgeting.

Bobby Enoch currently serves as the Director of Budget within the Office of Operations at the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA), where he leads the agency's strategic financial planning and budget execution in alignment with its public health mission.

With over three decades of federal service,

Bobby brings deep expertise in financial management, organizational leadership, and cross-functional coordination.

Prior to his current role, Bobby served as the Deputy Director of Operations for the FDA's Office of International Programs. In this position, he provided executive oversight for critical operational areas including Budget, Human Resources, Information Technology, and Overseas Operations. His leadership supported FDA offices and staff in key global regions such as China, India, Europe, and Latin America, enhancing the agency's international presence and operational effectiveness.

Bobby's career reflects a proven ability to lead complex, multidisciplinary teams and drive performance across both domestic and international operations. His commitment to excellence and strategic insight continue to support the FDA's mission to protect and promote public health worldwide.

Bobby is also a graduate of the Federal Government's Executive Leadership Program and holds a Master's Certificate in Project Management from The George Washington University, further highlighting his commitment to continuous professional development and excellence in organizational leadership.

With over 25 years of experience as a licensed real estate agent, Bobby Enoch has built a trusted reputation serving clients across Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, D.C. Known for his deep market knowledge, client-first approach, and commitment to excellence, Bobby has guided countless individuals and families through the complexities of buying, selling, and investing in real estate.

Over the years, Bobby has expanded his expertise beyond residential transactions to include real estate investment. Leveraging his industry insight, he has successfully built a personal investment portfolio, allowing him to offer clients valuable guidance from both a realtor's and investor's perspective. His hands-on experience in property acquisition, renovation, and asset growth gives clients an added edge in achieving their real estate goals.

Whether working with first-time homebuyers, seasoned investors, or those relocating to the DMV area, Bobby brings professionalism, integrity, and a results-driven mindset to every transaction.

Bobby's entrepreneurial spirit also extends to the field of youth athletics. A high school and youth football coach for over 25 years, he has mentored countless young athletes, many of whom have gone on to earn scholarships to private high schools and colleges.

In 2015, Bobby co-founded "The Lab Skills Academy", a football training academy focused on developing position-specific skills for youth, high school, and college athletes. The Lab Skills Academy continues to thrive as a respected resource for aspiring athletes in the region.

Whether in the realm of public service, business, or community mentorship, Bobby Enoch leads with purpose, passion, and a deep commitment to helping others grow.